

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Date: 19th August 2021

Recovering Nepal is a National Federation of PUDs and Drug Service Organizations in Nepal. Since its establishment, Recovering Nepal has reached out to drug users via various support groups. Since May 2003, this group is serving as a strong network of committed people, who are helping in addressing the stigma discrimination, raising voice to promote basic rights, advocating for policy change and increasing quality access to affordable and comprehensive treatment and care for the PUDs who are living with HIV. The organization promotes provision of HIV and Harm Reduction services and advocate for the rights of PUDs while focusing on strengthening the capacity of PUDs and their organizations to respond to the HIV epidemic, especially at the grassroots level.

Recovering Nepal has been implementing Global Fund Catalytic human rights activities for KPs, Positive action Grant (community Based Harm Reduction program) the incumbent will be contracted for 1 year as per requirement of project and the position will be extended subject to availability of fund and as per the requirement organization. The Remuneration and benefits will be provided as per the projects of RN. Hence, Recovering Nepal is currently looking for following experienced and dynamic team member of aforementioned project.

Position: Advocacy and Program M&E officer
Required number: 1
Work Station: RN central Officer Kumaripati

Key responsibilities:

- ❖ Perform as lead focal person of designated province to operate entire project interventions;
- ❖ Establish sound coordination and collaboration with province based government counterparts and entire concerned stakeholders;
- ❖ Ensure entire project requirements are fulfilled, documented and compliance with project directions;
- ❖ Develop advocacy plan in the areas of PWID and FIDUs related health, human rights, legal barriers, social discrimination, gender equality and local fund utilization;
- ❖ Monitor and regularly report the activities that are conducted in province level according to project mandate;

Requirements:

- ❖ Graduate equivalent to social science, public health or management
- ❖ Excellent in written and spoken in both Nepali and English, local language is preferred according to socio-cultural diversity of provinces;
- ❖ Minimum 5 years working experience in the areas of drugs and Human rights, HIV/AIDS, HEP C program are highly desirable.
- ❖ Very good in facilitation, reporting and analytical skills
- ❖ Demonstrated experience of working closely with local partners and building partner's capacity.
- ❖ Knowledge of computers and database / spreadsheet / word processing software

Competent candidates from PWID community will be given priority. Interested candidates are requested to submit their application along with an updated CV by 29th August 2021 via email info@recoveringnepal.org.np only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for further recruitment process. No telephone enquiry is entertained.